Jolita Wainwright fits the criteria for early termination recommended by the Judicial Conference Committee on Criminal Law. Ms. Wainwright has made progressive strides toward achieving supervision objectives and appears to pose no risk to public safety. The defendant has paid restitution at the set rate of ten percent (10%) of gross income. Mr. Carroll Andre, Assistant U. S. PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER that the defendant be discharged immediately from Supervised Release, with the understanding that the United States Attorney's Office will be responsible for the continued collection of restitution.
